

NEW TEXAS YOUTH CAMP RULES

Effective May 16, 2010

Gregory S. Love, Esq.

Kimberlee D. Norris, Esq.

The Texas Youth Camp and Safety Act became effective on June 1, 2006 (“Youth Camp Act”). The requirements of the Youth Camp Act were found in the Texas Health and Safety Code (Chapter 141) and the Texas Administrative Code (Title 25, Part 1, Chapter 265, Subchapter B).

Effective May 16, 2010, new rules introduced by the Texas Department of State Health Services (TDSHS) will become effective. Rather than simply adding to the existing rules, the TDSHS has modified the existing rules within the Texas Administrative Code:

<http://www.dshs.state.tx.us/youthcamp/rules.shtm>

The first challenge for organizations and camps complying with the Act is to determine what has been changed by comparing the old with the new – identifying provisions which have been changed, added or removed. Below is a highlighted copy of the amended Texas Administrative Code section that contains the new youth camp rules – all of the modifications appear in yellow. Occasional commentary appears within the body of the highlighted copy when a change in the law impacts screening, training or reporting requirements related to child sexual abuse; the comments appear in boxed inserts (also discussed in summary form below).

The second challenge relates to the timing of enforcement. The TDSHS acknowledges that the new rules are effective immediately, with little time available for camps and organizations to modify practices to accommodate the new measures. TDSHS expects immediate compliance and will note all deficiencies. If the deficiency is related to the new rules (2010 changes/additions), the deficiency will not be accompanied by a fine. This ‘grace period’ will extend through the ‘summer of 2010’. For more information about the compliance plan for the new rules, contact your representative of the Youth Camp Advisory Committee.

SPECIFIC CHANGES

The mission of MinistrySafe and Abuse Prevention Systems is to equip member entities to reduce the risk of child sexual abuse. In accord with this mission, this information concerning changes in Texas law is offered to members. Though many changes to the youth camp rules were made, this discussion is limited to those rule changes involving screening, training or reporting requirements related to child sexual abuse.

Requirement to Complete Criminal Background Checks PRIOR to Access to Children

The changes contained in §265.12(f) are the most significant additions relating to screening practices and the protection of children from sexual abuse. Though subsection (f) is not new, its significant modification requires close review.

The 2006 requirements called for searches of criminal conviction records and the sex offender registration records; it did not, however, specifically require the searches to be completed prior to allowing adult staff members or volunteers unsupervised contact with children. The new rules require that these checks be completed PRIOR to a staff member or volunteer having unsupervised contact with children.

Requirement to Search Temporary and Educational Addresses

The new §265.12(f)(1) and §265.12(f)(2) may require additional searches to comply with the criminal conviction and sex offender registration requirements. The new rules distinguish between permanent, temporary and educational addresses, requiring a search of each if an applicant has any address other than a permanent address. An example of a scenario requiring an additional search follows: John Doe applies as an adult staff member. John is from Houston, Texas and is a college student at Tulsa University. The new rules would require searches related to John Doe's permanent address (Houston/Texas) and searches related to John Doe's educational address (Tulsa/Oklahoma).

Convictions and Deferred Adjudications

The 2006 provisions referenced only “convictions”; the new rules call for preclusion if the person has a “conviction or deferred adjudication”.

Impact of Particular Criminal Convictions or Deferred Adjudications

If an applicant's criminal background involves a conviction or deferred adjudication for an offense listed in §265.12(g), that applicant SHALL BE PRECLUDED from serving as a staff member or volunteer, or allowed unsupervised contact with children (other than their own).

Title 5 “Offenses Against the Person” include (but are not limited to) homicide, false imprisonment, kidnapping, assault, sexual assault, injury to a child/elderly individual/disabled individual, abandoning or endangering a child, leaving a child in a vehicle.

Title 6 “Offenses Against the Family” include (but not limited to) matters related to the interference with child custody.

The offenses listed in §265.12(g)(1)(A) and (B) MAY PRECLUDE a person from serving as a staff member or volunteer, or allowed unsupervised contact with children.

Refinement of Abuse and Neglect Reporting Requirements

The specific requirements for reporting abuse (sexual or physical) and neglect appear in §265.15(d). The new rules provide a great deal of detail and refinement for reporting incidents of abuse and neglect.

The definitions and requirements contained in 265.15(d) refer to the Texas Family Code, which requires reporting of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect. (Chapter 261, Family Code.)

The requirements for reporting incidents of abuse or neglect occurring at a youth camp are found in §265.15(d)(1), while requirements for reporting incidents of abuse or neglect that occur elsewhere are found in §265.15(d)(2).

It is critical that all staff members and volunteers understand these requirements for reporting abuse and neglect.

This definitional list is simply a different format from the 2006 provision that appears in §265.11 (21); the only addition is the language in (B) which adds “accommodates at least five minors during each camp session;”

(26) Youth camp operator--Any person who owns, operates, controls, or supervises a youth camp, whether or not for profit.

§265.12. Directors, Supervisors, and Staff.

(a) On-site director required. Each youth camp shall be under the on-site direction of a qualified adult with at least two years of experience working with children. The director shall be knowledgeable in camp administrative practices and shall have at least one year of leadership experience with an organized youth camp, school or other youth-serving organization, such as the Boy Scouts of America or Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA).

(b) Adult supervisors. Each youth camp shall have at least one adult supervisor who is responsible for the supervision of no more than ten children in the camp. For any hazardous activity the supervisor(s) shall be in the immediate vicinity (within sight and/or hearing) of the campers. An "all camp" sedentary activity, not requiring physical activity, may require less supervision, and each camp shall establish its own guidelines, but not less than one adult supervisor to every 25 campers. The camp director shall not be included in the supervisor to camper ratio in camps serving over 50 campers at one time.

(c) Supervision of hazardous activity. Hazardous camp activities shall be conducted by and under the direct supervision of a qualified adult capable of implementing safety standards established by the department or the camp. The specialist shall also have documented training or at least two years documented experience in conducting the activity.

(d) Written personnel policies and practices. A camp shall have written personnel policies and practices for both campers and staff. Supervisors shall be informed of these policies and practices prior to assuming responsibility for campers.

(e) Staff member character and integrity records. The camp management shall ascertain and have on record information, such as a letter of reference, attesting to the character and integrity of each staff member, and information, such as training certificates, attesting to the ability of each staff member to perform the tasks required in his or her position.

The following sections are the most significant additions that relate to the screening process and the protection of children from sexual abuse. Though subsection (f) is not new, it is significantly modified such that it needs close review. Some notable changes:

*The 2006 version calls for searches of criminal conviction records and the sex offender registration records; it does not, however, specifically require the searches to be complete prior to allowing adult staff members or volunteers unsupervised contact with children. The new rules require that these checks be completed PRIOR to having unsupervised contact with children.

(f) Criminal conviction and sex offender background check requirements. The camp management shall have on file a record of any criminal conviction and a sex offender registration check for all adult staff members and all adult volunteers working at the camp before the staff member or volunteer has unsupervised contact with children at the camp. If the records are located off-site, a letter from the national or regional headquarters of the camp organization stating the names of individuals at the camp site for whom background checks have been conducted, shall be available at the camp site. All records of criminal convictions and written evaluations for a camp or camping organization shall be made available to department personnel within two business days upon request. Youth camps are responsible for ensuring that criminal and sex offender background checks have been conducted for international staff obtained through the J-1 visa process, and that documentation of these checks are located with other staff background checks. Records of criminal convictions and sex offender status shall be obtained by:

(1) performing an annual criminal background check using a criminal history database for each adult staff member's and each adult volunteer's permanent residence. If the staff member or adult volunteer has a temporary or an educational residence, an annual criminal background check shall include searching under the permanent, temporary and educational address, as applicable. The criminal history database used for the criminal background check is to be based on the individual's residences, and may include state, national or international databases. Documentation of the search results, whether or not the results are positive, shall be maintained with the sex offender background documentation; and

The new §265.12(f)(1) and §265.12(f)(2) may require additional searches to comply with the criminal conviction and sex offender registration requirements. The new rules distinguish between permanent, temporary and educational addresses; the new rules require a search of each (if an applicant has an address other than a permanent address). An example of a scenario that would require an additional search would be as follows: John Doe applies as an adult staff member; John is from Houston, Texas and is a college student at Tulsa University. The new rules would require searches related to John Doe's permanent address (Houston/Texas) and searches related to John Doe's educational address (Tulsa/Oklahoma).

The 2006 provisions referenced only "convictions"; the new rules call for preclusion if the person has a "conviction or deferred adjudication".

(2) performing an annual background check using a sex offender registration database for each adult staff member's and each adult volunteer's permanent residence and educational residence if applicable, such as the TXDPS - Sex Offender Registry, which may be accessed at Texas Department of Public Safety - Crime Records Service. Documentation of the search results, whether or not the results are positive, shall be maintained with the criminal background documentation.

(g) Persons whose presence at a youth camp shall be precluded. Youth camps shall not employ paid or unpaid staff members or volunteers at a youth camp, or permit any person to have unsupervised contact with campers other than their own children if the person has the following types of criminal convictions or deferred adjudications: a misdemeanor or felony under Texas Penal Code, Title 5 (Offenses Against the Person), Title 6 (Offenses Against the Family), Chapter 29 (Robbery) of Title 7, Chapter 43 (Public Indecency) or §42.072 (Stalking) of Title 9, §15.031 (Criminal Solicitation of a Minor) of Title 4, §38.17 (Failure to Stop or Report Aggravated Sexual Assault of Child) of Title 8, or any like offense under the law of another state or under federal law.

The above list of offenses SHALL PRECLUDE a person from serving as a staff member or volunteer, or be allowed unsupervised contact with children (other than their own children).

Title 5 “Offenses Against the Person” include (but not limited to) homicide, false imprisonment, kidnapping, assault, sexual assault, injury to a child/elderly individual/disabled individual, abandoning or endangering a child, leaving a child in a vehicle

Title 6 “Offenses Against the Family” include (but not limited to) matters related to the interference with child custody

The offenses listed below in §265.12(g)(1)(A) and (B) MAY PRECLUDE a person from serving as a staff member or volunteer, or be allowed unsupervised contact with children.

(1) Youth camps may preclude a person from being a paid or unpaid staff member or volunteer at a youth camp; or may preclude a person from having unsupervised contact with campers other than the person’s own children, if the person has the following types of criminal convictions or deferred adjudications:

(A) a misdemeanor or felony committed within the past ten years under §46.13 (Making a Firearm Accessible to a Child) or Chapter 49 (Intoxication and Alcoholic Beverage Offenses) of Title 10 of the Texas Penal Code, or any like offense under the law of another state or under federal law; or

(B) any other felony under the Texas Penal Code or any like offense under the law of another state or under federal law that the person committed within the past ten years.

(2) Camp management shall have on file a written evaluation for any staff member or volunteer with a criminal conviction or deferred adjudication included in paragraph (1) of this subsection, showing that management has determined the person is suitable for a position at the youth camp despite a criminal conviction or deferred adjudication.

(i) Sexual abuse and child molestation awareness training and examination program.

(1) Effective June 1, 2006, a youth camp licensee may not employ or accept the volunteer service of an individual for a position involving contact with campers at a youth camp unless:

(A) the individual submits to the licensee or the youth camp has on file documentation that verifies the individual within the preceding two years has successfully completed the training and examination program required by this subsection; or

(B) the individual successfully completes the youth camp's training and examination program approved by the department during the individual's first workweek, and prior to any contact with campers unless supervised during the first workweek by an adult who has successfully completed the program. The youth camp shall have documentation on file and available for inspection within two business days of request by the department verifying that the individual successfully completed the youth camp's training and examination program.

(2) For purposes of this subsection, the term "contact with campers" does not include visitors such as a guest speaker, an entertainer, or a parent who visits for a limited purpose or a limited time if the visitor has no direct and unsupervised interaction with campers. A visitor may have direct and unsupervised contact with a camper to whom the visitor is related. A camp may require training and an examination for visitors if it chooses.

(3) A youth camp licensee shall retain in the person's personnel record a copy of the documentation required or issued under paragraph (1)(A) of this subsection for each employee or volunteer until the second anniversary of the examination date.

(4) Prior to their use, the department may approve training and examination programs offered by trainers under contract with youth camps, by online training organizations, or programs offered in another format, such as a videotape, authorized by the department.

(5) A training and examination program on sexual abuse and child molestation approved by the department shall at a minimum include training and an examination on:

(A) the definitions and effects of sexual abuse and child molestation;

(B) the typical patterns of behavior and methods of operation of child molesters and sex offenders that put children at risk;

(C) the warning signs and symptoms associated with sexual abuse or child molestation, recognition of the signs and symptoms, and the recommended methods of reporting suspected abuse; and

(D) the recommended rules and procedures for youth camps to implement to address, reduce, prevent, and report suspected sexual abuse or child molestation. Training shall include the need to minimize one-on-one isolated encounters between an adult and a minor or between two minors.

(6) The training program shall last for a minimum of one hour and discuss each of the topics described in paragraph (5) of this subsection.

(7) The examination shall consist of a minimum of 25 questions which shall cover each of the topics described in paragraph (5) of this subsection.

(8) To successfully complete the training program, each employee or volunteer shall achieve a score of 70% or more correct on an individual examination. If the examination is taken on-line, the employee or volunteer shall retain a certificate of completion indicating they successfully completed the course.

(9) The department may assess a fee of $125 to each applicant to cover the costs of the department's initial review and each follow-up review of a training and examination program.

(10) Applications and fees shall be mailed to the Environmental and Sanitation Licensing Group, Department of State Health Services, Mail Code 2003, P.O. Box 149347, Austin, Texas 78714-9347. Applications may be obtained by calling the Environmental and Sanitation Licensing Group at (512) 834-6600 or may be downloaded from <http://www.dshs.state.tx.us/youthcamp/default.shtm>.

(11) The department, at least every five years from the date of initial approval, shall review each training and examination program approved by the department to ensure the program continues to meet the criteria and guidelines established under this subsection.

(j) Records retention. All applications, background check reports, training documentation, and other required personnel documentation required by these rules shall be maintained in hard copy or electronic format for a minimum of two years following a person's last day of service.

(f) Bunk bed guardrails. In all rooms housing campers, all bunk beds shall have at least two guardrails, one on each side of the bed for each bed having the underside of its foundation more than 30 inches from the floor in accordance with the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 16 CFR, Part 1513.3. Bunk beds securely attached to a wall may utilize the wall as one guardrail.

(n) Construction of privies. Privies, if provided, shall be constructed according to standards set forth in the Texas Community Sanitation Handbook, which may be obtained from the department by calling the Environmental Health Group, Policy, Standards and Quality Assurance Unit at 512-834-6773. Privies shall be maintained in a manner to prevent access by flies and animals, to prevent fly breeding, and to prevent contamination of any water supply.

(o) Availability of toilet tissue. Toilet tissue shall be available at all times for each toilet or privy seat.

(r) Private water supply. Youth camps having water supplies that do not meet the definition of a public water system or that are not regulated by the TCEQ shall comply with the following requirements when the camp is open or operational unless otherwise indicated.

(1) Water supply. An adequate supply of water shall be available at all times in each camp in accordance with the following table.

(2) Water pressure. The system shall be designed to maintain a minimum pressure of 35 pounds per square inch (psi) at all points within the distribution network at flow rates of at least 1.5 gallons per minute per connection. When the system is intended to provide fire fighting capability, it shall also be designed to maintain a minimum pressure of 20 psi under combined fire and drinking water flow conditions. Minimum distribution pressure shall not be less than 20 psi at any time.

(3) Bacteriological properties.

(A) Water systems serving camps shall submit a minimum of one water sample for testing for total coliform, fecal coliform, E. coli, or other fecal indicator organisms, for the month prior to camp opening and each month the camp is in operation.

(B) Testing for microbial contaminants shall be performed at a laboratory certified by TCEQ.

(C) If a routine distribution coliform sample is coliform-positive, then the camp shall issue a written boil water notification to all camp staff and volunteers. The notification shall state, "To ensure destruction of all harmful bacteria and other microbes, water for drinking, cooking, and ice making shall be boiled and cooled prior to consumption. The water shall be brought to a vigorous rolling boil and then boiled for two minutes. In lieu of boiling, purchased bottled water, water obtained from some other suitable source, or ice obtained from an approved source may be used."

(D) The boil water notification shall remain in effect until a repeat distribution coliform sample is coliform-negative.

(E) Records of all bacteriological tests and of any boil water notification shall be kept on site.

(4) Chemical properties.

(A) Camps shall submit a water sample obtained from the entry point to the distribution system to a laboratory for chemical analysis at least once every three years.

(B) The chemical analysis shall be for secondary constituent levels.

(C) Maximum secondary constituent levels are as described in the following table.

(D) Records of all chemical testing shall be kept on site.

(5) Minimum residual disinfectant concentrations and maximum residual disinfectant levels (MRDLs).

(A) The minimum residual disinfectant concentration in the water entering the distribution system and the water within the distribution system shall be 0.2 milligrams per liter (mg/L) free chlorine or 0.5 mg/L chloramine.

(B) The MRDL of chlorine dioxide in the water entering the distribution system shall be 0.8 mg/L.

(C) The MRDL of free chlorine or chloramine in the water within the distribution system shall be 4.0 mg/L based on a running annual average.

(6) Backflow prevention. The plumbing system shall preclude backflow of a solid, liquid, or gas contaminant into the water supply system at each point of use, including on a hose bib, by:

(A) providing an air gap between the water supply inlet and the flood level rim of a plumbing fixture, equipment, or nonfood equipment that is at least twice the diameter of the water supply inlet and not less than 25 mm (1 inch); or

(B) installing an approved backflow prevention device that meets the American Society of Sanitary Engineering (ASSE) standards for construction, installation, maintenance, inspection, and testing for that specific application and type of device.

(7) Disinfection of new or repaired water system facilities.

(A) When repairs are made to existing mains or when new main extensions are installed, they shall be disinfected using such amounts of chlorine compounds as to fill the repaired or new mains and appurtenances with water containing 50 ppm chlorine.

(B) After the water containing this amount of chlorine, which is greater than that normally present in drinking water, has been in contact with the pipe and appurtenances for at least 24 hours, the main shall be flushed until the free chlorine or chloramine in the water within the new or repaired distribution system is less than 4.0 mg/L.

(C) A sample of water from the new or repaired main shall be submitted to a laboratory certified by TCEQ for bacteriological examination so as to be assured that the disinfection procedure was effective.

The renewal notice shall state:

- (1) the type of license requiring renewal;
- (2) the time period allowed for renewal; and
